"The contract of February 28, 1893, states the obligation is imposed upon the contractors to satisfy the inspector that everything has been done in strict accordance with the terms of the contract. It has been conclusively shown that the inspectors have been satisfied, and the armor plates passed by the most notorious frauds. The effort of the company and all its superintendents, Cline, Corey and Schwab has been to satisfy our committee that the armor plate is up to the requirements of the contracts, notwithstanding false reports to inspectors, doctoring of specimens, plugging of plates, fraudulent re-treating f test plates, and "jockeying" of the testing machine. The unblushing character of the frauds to which these men have been parties, and the disregard of truth and honesty which they have shown in testifying before your committee render them unworthy of credence.
